Call to Worship Psalm 139:1-6, 13-18

L: LORD, you have searched me out; O LORD, you have known me.

P: You know my sitting down and my rising up; you discern my thoughts from afar.

L: You trace my journeys and my resting-places and are acquainted with all my ways.

P: Indeed, there is not a word on my lips, but you, O LORD, know it altogether.

L: You encompass me, behind and before, and lay your hand upon me.

P: Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is so high that I cannot attain to it.

L: For you yourself created my inmost parts; you knit me together in my mother's womb.

P: I will thank you because I am marvelously made; your works are wonderful, and I know it well.

L: My body was not hidden from you, while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the earth.

P: Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb; all of them were written in your book; my days were fashioned before they came to be.

L: How deep I find your thoughts, O God! How great is the sum of them!

P: If I were to count them, they would be more in number than the sand; to count them all, my life span would need to be like yours.
